Stor-All Storage Celebrates Ten years at its Weston, Florida Location

Stor-All Storage in Weston, Florida reaches a milestone this month, by providing a decade of self storage service to the surrounding Weston area.

Deerfield Beach, Florida, April 11, 2013 – Stor-All’s Weston storage property celebrates its ten year anniversary this month. The 2.0 acre property is located at 2707 Executive Park Lane in Weston, Florida. Construction of the Stor-All storage facility took a year to complete and operations began in April of 2003. The three story storage building contains 59,000 square feet of self storage space offering 530 climate-controlled self storage units.

To keep up with the standards in the area this facility is meticulously landscaped all around the perimeter. After ten years Stor-All understands the value of up-keep and cleanliness. Staying on top of the small maintenance everyday is what makes this facility still look like new! One way Weston has kept its sheen through its preventive maintenance schedule and addressing any maintenance problems as soon as they occur. The only major capital expenditure over the last ten years was for a brand new roof that was recently installed.

As a ten year member of the Weston community Stor-All has built many lasting relationships offering their services to local charities and organizations. Community involvement is an important part of Stor-All’s culture as a goodness driven family business. Stor-All’s recently announced Loc-all Good initiative will help promote goodness in the City of Weston.

Stor-All is thrilled that its Weston storage property is celebrating ten years of operation. Jeff Anderson, the managing partner of Stor-All, commented, “Weston Stor-All proves that a storage property can have a long economic life, if it is built to high standards of quality and immaculately maintained. We take great pride in doing both. Ten years in operation is certainly an accomplishment, but some Stor-All storage properties are over 20 years in age and look almost new. We feel confident in our people and that our practices will ensure that many more of our storage properties will continue to appeal to our customers and be successful for many years to come.”
